Strategies might be academic in nature: a change of major (name the new major and explain why it is a better major for you); a commitment to seek tutoring or counseling; a commitment to join a study group; a commitment to spend a set number of hours per class studying each week, etc. Other non-academic strategies might include: a commitment to seek mental health counseling; reducing employment commitments; changing living situations, etc.

Section 6: Student Statement/Signature

I hereby request readmission to the university after having stopped out for more than one semester (excluding summer) and appeal my academic censure if applicable and/or my financial aid eligibility (SAP) imposed upon me at the time I left Marquette. I understand that the college to which I appeal has the final decision in all academic censure and/or SAP appeals. I also understand and agree that if I am readmitted, I am bound by the credit/GPA conditions applied to me in the college academic plan created specifically for me, and that I must comply with all of these conditions, or, I will again be subject to academic censure and/or made ineligible for financial aid.
