

Text for electronic ads for recruiting participants and for advertisements to be placed in church bulletins, community newsletters, newspapers, university news briefs and email solicitations.

Researchers at Marquette are recruiting participants for a study examining a new method for stroke rehabilitation.

Details of study:

- Participants will exercise over several weeks.
- Compensation will be provided.

Location: Marquette University, Department of Physical Therapy.

Inclusion criteria:

- Difficulty walking due to stroke
- Able to exercise
- No neurological conditions other than stroke

If you are interested in participating or learning more about this study, please contact:

Anna Schuster

Phone: 414288-7274

Email: anna.schuster@marquette.edu